This should come as good news to many of the users who previously abandoned OneDrive after it was bought out by Google. There are some downsides though. Most users are going to have to subscribe to OneDrive. Is this a good service for Android? OneDrive is a file sharing service that was originally designed for Windows Phone users and later on incorporated into Windows 8.1. Microsoft pulled the plug on OneDrive for Windows Phone in 2016 as part b7e8fdf5c8

Junior Organizer Deluxe Screenshots: The first-ever horror comedy, Mistress America, is getting into theatres this weekend courtesy of New Line. It stars Laura Dern and Meg Tilly and is written and directed by Alan Ball, who also created, among others, Six Feet Under and True Blood. And it's all quite funny. Based on the DC Comics character of the same name, Mistress America follows a nun in the near future who is a seemingly sensible person, but turns out to be one of a whole range of unhinged entities - robots, a savage matriarch, a sexual vampire, and a group of clones - doing the bidding of the grandmother she never knew who wanted to control the world. All that, I imagine, is way above your pay grade, but if you love a good screwy old-school horror movie, I'd say it's worth a look. Talking of high quality horrors, Cult of Gynocracy, written by and starring Phoebe Dyne and directed by Lenore Zann, will be showing at the IFC Center this week after being released last year. Adapted from a novel that's been in development since 2009, Cult of Gynocracy is a feminist take on the Frankenstein mythos, with a strong sense of political commentary. Dyne plays the brilliant, kind-hearted
